U. S. HAS SCHEME TO END STRIKE

Plan To Bring Miners And Owners Together To Be Out Soon.

Washington, April 25.—The government is working on a plan looking to ending of the coal strike which it will submit soon to both operators and union leaders, it was said today at the White House. Details of the plan were not disclosed, but it was said that it does not include federal supervision of the coal industry.

The plan which now is receiving the attention of President Harding and his advisers was said to contemplate a permanent solution, if possible, of the basic problems of the industry. Presentation of the plan, it was indicated, would be made when a favorable opportunity presents itself.

Testifying before the House Labor Committee today on the Bland bill, which proposes to create a federal coal investigating agency, J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National Coal Association, declared it was "sheer nonsense to suppose that consumers pay more for coal because of overproduction." The existence of many more mines than are needed normally to supply the country, Mr. Morrow said, is "the chief safeguard of the consumer."

Mr. Morrow added that repeated investigation had proven the supply of coal in the United States "practically inexhaustible." Wide distribution of mines and ownership made it impossible for monopoly or price control to exist in the country, he asserted.

May Arrange Separate Contract for Kentucky.

Springfield, Ill., April 25.—Negotiation of separate state wage agreements by striking coal miners in Kentucky and Tennessee was announced today by Frank Farrington, Illinois, president of the United Mine Workers. Separate wage agreements with locals in Illinois are imminent, he added.

In Alabama, he said, the state union officers have instructed members to continue at work.

Madisonville, Ky., April 25.—A long-distance telephone message today from Webb Ames, vice president of District No. 23, United Mine Workers of America, said that the announcement made today by Frank Farrington in Springfield, Ill., had no bearing on the Western Kentucky coal strike situation. Contracts, said Mr. Ames, with operators still have a year to run. There has been, he added, of course, no suspension of work in Western Kentucky due to the nation-wide suspension of work in the coal industry.

The announcement attributed to Mr. Farrington, he said, as it applied to Kentucky might have meant that separate contracts were about to be negotiated with union miners in the southeastern part of the state.

10,000 Miners Working In Western Kentucky.

Owensboro, Ky., April 25.—According to Vice President Webb Ames, of District 23, U. M. W. of America, which is the Western Kentucky field, 10,000 union miners are at work. Since the first of April, when the nation-wide strike was called, about 3,000 miners have been added to the mines in Hopkins, Muhlenberg and Ohio counties. Mines that have been idle for months are resuming operations in this district on account of orders that are being received.

The union miners were not called out in District 23, on account of the contract with the operators not expiring until April 1, 1923.

CENTERTOWN WALLOPS HARTFORD IN NINTH

Centertown and Hartford met Sunday afternoon at the latter's Park in the first game of the season. It was a pretty good fracas from the Local's point of view, up to the last act, they being in the lead by the score of 6 to 4. In this inning the Centertownians used their bludgeons on the offerings of "Big" Rogers and before they could be squelched four scores were shoved over the registering pan and the game cozily tucked 'neath their belts. Only a fair-sized gathering of Fans were out for the game, it being rather cool for the occasion. On failure of Glenn to show-up at the start of the game Crowe went behind the bat and did the receiving during the first act, Glenn catching during the remainder of the game with "Moot" Felix hurling the first three innings who was replaced by Rogers. Brown, Everly and Reneer formed the tolling staff for Centertown.

A few things happened on the grounds Sunday, the like of which should not be again permitted. Put the offenders off of the grounds and see that merited punishment is given the offenders.

STEVENS—MITCHELL

Miss Beatrice Stevens and Prof. Isom Mitchell were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Baptist church, Rev. W. C. Boone, officiating. Rhea Murry were the only attendants.—Owensboro Messenger.

Mr. Mitchell resides in the Bells Run country, this county, and has many friends throughout the county. He recently purchased the building and stock of groceries etc., of Mr. W. O. Kirk at Pleasant Ridge, where he with his bride, will make their home.

BOGUS BONDS FLOOD COUNTRY, IS CHARGE

Millions Put In Circulation Declares Johnson On Floor Of House.

Washington, April 26.—Representative Johnson, Republican, South Dakota, declared in the House today that investigation of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing would show that hundreds of millions of dollars in spurious certificates had been printed and put into circulation.

Some of the duplicate Liberty bonds Mr. Johnson declared, ran 100,000 higher in numbers than those legally issued, and added that in one instance a negro taxicab driver in Washington, he was informed, was found with thirty-one one thousand dollar spurious bonds in his possession.

Asserting that the credit of the country should not be damaged by reckless statements in Congress, Representative Wingo, Democrat, Arkansas, declared that "when Secretary Mellon denied any duplication I cannot and will not believe he uttered a falsehood."

Mr. Wingo said Mr. Mellon would not have denied wrongdoing at the bureau unless he knew of his own knowledge that none existed.

When Representative Johnson's statements were called to the attention of officials at the treasury Secretary Mellon's recent statement denying reports of widespread circulation of counterfeit Government currency and securities was reiterated.

Mr. Mellon, it was said, had gone into the reports of counterfeit Government paper being in circulation on a large scale and was convinced that such reports were groundless.

The report of the special committee appointed by Secretary Mellon to make an inventory of the stock of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing probably will be submitted Monday, it was said. Officials asserted that while it was too soon to say what isolated cases of slight discrepancies might be discovered the investigation so far has disclosed no indications of counterfeiting or other irregularities on a large scale.

BISHOPS ATTEND BOARD MEETING

Twenty At Conference Of Southern Methodist Church

(Louisville Herald, April 26.)

Twenty bishops from various parts of the South and Southwest attended the opening meeting yesterday morning of the board of church extension of the Southern Methodist Church at the headquarters of the board at 1-115 South Fourth street.

The morning session was devoted to the preparation of their Episcopal address to the quadrennial legislative session of the Southern Methodist Church, which will be held at Hot Springs, Ark., May 3.

The bishops were entertained at luncheon by Bishop McMurray. They continued their work in the afternoon session. The address, which is now under final review before the college of bishops, was delivered by Bishop James Adkins, of Nashville, Tenn.

The regular meetings of the annual conference of the board of church extension will be held today and tomorrow. Twenty-one lay and clerical members from all parts of the country will be in attendance in addition to the bishops.

Plans to finance the building of a number of churches in educational centers, the cost of which may exceed $1,500,000 will be taken up in the meeting this morning. About 800 applications for aid in building the churches are pending, according to the Rev. Dr. S. H. C. Burgin, of Louisville, secretary of the board.

Final action will be taken tomorrow on the quadrennial address, which will contain a review of the work of the church for the past four years, a discussion of the great questions before the church at the present time. It will also include recommendations as to the government of the denomination, and in a general way forecast the policies of the general conference.

A number of the bishops will leave today, the rest remaining for the final meeting of the board of church extension tomorrow.

MISS LUCILE BARRETT

Miss Lucile Barrett, aged 27 years 10 months and 4 days, daughter of Mrs. Filura Barrett and Lyeurgus Barrett deceased, and a sister of Lyman G. Barrett, Managing Editor of the Hartford Herald, died at the home of her mother at Barrett's Ferry, Saturday afternoon at 2:45 of tetanus as the result of a wound received to one of her feet by the penetration of a rusty nail, on April the 11th or ten days prior to her death.

Miss Barrett was a splendid type of young womanhood, a consistent follower and exemplar of Christian faith. She was a member and officer of the Dundee Chapter Order of the Eastern Star and possessed a wide circle of admiring friends.

In addition to her mother and brother she is survived by one sister, Miss Mattie Bonner Barrett.

Funeral service was conducted from the family residence by the Rev. Mason Wilcox at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Sunday. The remains were deposited in the family burying grounds adjacent to the home with ceremonies conducted by the Dundee Chapter, O. E. S., assisted by the Pleasant Grove Chapter.

SENIOR PLAY WAS DECIDED SUCCESS

The Play "Much Ado About Betty" given by the Senior Class of the Hartford High School at the Auditorium, Thursday (press night) of last week, has been highly complimented by the best and "worst" critics, conclusive evidence that the students did their turns in a most creditable manner and also a tribute to their Directress, Miss Nelson.

The music furnished by the local and newly organized orchestra was an added and enjoyable feature.

A capacity house was played to and from a financial standpoint the staging of the play was very gratifying.

Following is a list of those who had a part in the play: Misses Bessie Clark, Myrtle Carter, Helen Barnett, Geneva Travis, Lorene Westerfield, Defrosia Rone and Sally Laura Williams; Messrs. Virgil Crowe, Hubert Crowder, Arnold Likens, Luther Turner, George DeBruler, Otis Ashby, Herbert Porter, William Alford Davidson, Barbour Williams and Little Misses Lula D. Martin and Lois Jane Riley.

MRS. EMMA PAULINE BARBOUR SUCCEDES

Mrs. Emma Pauline Barbour, aged 83 years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James H. Williams and Mr. Williams, Hartford, at 6 o'clock yesterday morning, April 26, of ailments incident to her advanced age. She was originally a Miss Moore, born and reared in Aberdeen, Mississippi. In early womanhood she was united in marriage with Lieut. Col. Columbus Sykes of the Confederate Army. After the death of Col. Sykes she became the wife of Pollock Barbour, a prominent citizen of Louisville, who was a member of the Kentucky State Senate during the period of the late Jas. B. McCreary's first term as Governor. Mr. Barbour has been dead for a number of years.

Mrs. Barbour was a lovable and refined christian woman, a conscientious member of the Methodist church. Her remains will be borne to her girlhood home, Aberdeen, Miss., for interment, leaving here this afternoon, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Williams and her son, Mr. George E. Sykes, of Atlanta, Ga., the latter is expected to arrive here early this morning. Besides Mr. Sykes, a son by her first marriage, and Mrs. James H. Williams, daughter by her latter marriage, the deceased lady is also survived by Mrs. H. W. Hewitt, of Atlanta, Ga., likewise a daughter by the marriage to Mr. Barbour.

WARNS AGAINST RED DISGUISES

Bolshevistic Propaganda Spread By Apparently Harmless Societies.

Washington, April 27. (Capital News Service).—Brigadier General Amos Fries, chief of the division of chemical warfare, U. S. Army, Mason and patriot, warns Americans of the dangers lurking in apparently innocent clubs and societies, the very members of which are unaware of the sinister purposes behind their organization and the way in which they are used for the spreading of "red" propaganda.

In an address before a Congress of Parent-Teacher Associations General Fries said:

"There are organizations today working through women's clubs, men's clubs, fraternal, religious, labor and other bodies to teach communist doctrines. A number are operating under the guise of organizations for the reduction of armaments or the abolition of war. They do not ordinarily admit that they aim at communism and the destruction of modern government."

General Fries quoted from a letter from a woman official of an organization for world disarmament in which she states: "I have no confidence in anything short of revolution, peaceful by all means if possible, bloody if necessary, in every land, resulting in the establishment of the communist idea, in some form, to do away with war."

"Note that while this woman is talking about world disarmament, she advocates 'bloody revolution' if necessary to put her communism in force," said General Fries.

"Those who want to live in that style should work for communism," he continued, "but those who desire to live as Americans should fight every organization that tends to destroy the family and to make common property of everything in the world, including human beings themselves."

"We all learn to speak glibly of communists, anarchists, bolsheviks, and soviets. They are all the same. They all have their ultimate aim the destruction of the home and to make everything in the world common property. If you destroy the incentive to work and build a home civilization will fail."

BASE BALL!

Morgantown vs. Hartford Sunday, April 30, at East End Park. This will be a good game. Don't miss it.

DEATH AND LOSS IN TEXAS FLOOD'S WAKE

Fort Worth and Vicinity Get Record Breaking Inundation.

St. Louis, April 25.—More than 3,500 persons are homeless and at least 1,500 homes in the Trinity Valley between Arlington Heights, and Fort Worth, Texas, are inundated, according to advices received by the Southwestern division of the American Red Cross here tonight.

Fort Worth, April 25.—John J. McCain, Fort Worth city engineer, issued a statement tonight in which he declared that the levees around the rivers, which broke here early today and flooded lowlands of this city, were "dynamited by unknown parties" and that an investigation by a grand jury would be demanded immediately.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 25.—Sixty-three probably dead and property damage estimated at approximately $1,000,000 is the toll of a flood which swept Fort Worth early today, carrying before it scores of residences and small buildings, overflowing hundreds of acres of land and inundating several city streets.

The estimate of possibly sixty-three dead was made by Major L. G. White, in charge of Red Cross relief. However, none of the local undertaking establishments has received a body.

The flood was confined chiefly to the lowlands adjoining the tributaries of the Trinity river. Marine, Sycamore, and the Trinity rivers were swollen, overflowing the bottoms nearby.

Water stood three feet deep in the stock yards here and was only a foot from the Livestock Exchange building tonight. This water was expected to subside quickly, however.

The flood is the most severe in the history of the city, according to old time residents. Trinity river stood at 36.7 feet at noon and was still rising. The gauge measured only seven feet yesterday. With the break of the East First street levee late today, it was believed the water on being released would spread out, losing some of its force.

Coming on the heels of the heaviest rain in the history of Fort Worth, and a wind and electric storm, the flood took scores of people by surprise. The lowlands adjoining Sycamore creek were the ones to suffer, and at one time was standing level with the roofs of residences.

Word reaching here tonight from points north of Fort Worth indicate that a further rise of the water is expected. Rescue workers are laboring tirelessly in bringing relief to flood sufferers and attempting to rescue the flood stricken.

Fort Worth is spending a night in darkness and no drinking water has been available since early morning.

With the city facing a night of darkness 500 members of the American Legion were patrolling the streets, augmenting the police force which was working full time in the flooded areas. Communication was crippled and transportation was suspended partly.

CLEAN-UP WEEK

Gov. Morrow, in conjunction with the State Board of Health, has set aside a week beginning April 30th to May 6th, to clean house all over the State. The Ohio County Board of Health has arranged with the county and town officials to have teams ready to haul off all undesirable rubbish and in that way cooperate with every citizen to do a thorough spring cleaning on his premises. All we ask is that you pile your refuse in front of your lot and we will see that it is hauled off and disposed of. Privies, stables, chicken houses, hog pens, etc., should be thoroughly renovated. We kindly ask the assistance of the Parent-Teacher Association, Civic Clubs and any other organizations interested in this movement.

Cordially,
Ohio County Board of Health,
Judge R. R. WEDDING, Pres.
Dr. E. B. PENDLETON, Secy.

DAUGHTERY FOR PRISON REFORM

Success At Atlanta Moves Attorney General To Seek Others.

By W. H. Atkins.
Washington, April 22.—Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty has a lot of hobbies.

He likes to drag away on a rusty-looking pipe. He's a pretty fair fisherman. He turns a wicked tenor in an impromptu barber shop quartet. When not engrossed with official cares he enjoys a card game, a horse race, a billiard game, or any one of forty other varieties of pastime.

His real hobby, tho, is making good men out of bad ones. It's not a new hobby for him. He's been doing it for years. Taking the helm as head of the justice department, and the President's right-bower in legal problems, Mr. Daugherty jumped into a field of activity genuinely to his liking. Possessing "human" qualities in a rare degree, the attorney general within one year has extended his humanness into the dark recesses of the Federal prisons.

Within the federal penitentiaries Mr. Daugherty has introduced moral and educational advantages calculated to make real men out of the convicts, so that when their terms end they may go into different fields of activity and again become useful citizens—free from the temptation to repeat their old and dangerous ways. At the three penitentiaries maintained by the government at Atlanta, Leavenworth and McNeill Island, Cal. Mr. Daugherty has seen remarkable results from the operation of prison schools. In Atlanta prison over 200 illiterates, some native and some foreign born, after a few months' study were able last Christmas to write intelligent letters to friends and relatives.

Prisoners Make Good.

More than 1,000 prisoners were paroled, and their earnings were about $1,000,000. The attorney general gave that number another chance to make good, and they are making good. Besides, they are contributing their share to the country's productive output—production that would be lost if they remained in prison.

The success of industrial enterprises at Atlanta, so conducted that there is profit both for the government and for the prisoners themselves on a bonus basis, according to their output, had led Attorney General Daugherty to urge Congress to pass a bill authorizing the installation of similar industrial features in the prisons at Leavenworth and McNeill Island.

A cotton duck mill operated at Atlanta prison brought a net profit to the government of $185,000 and earned for the prisoners in bonuses of two cents a yard on their output, about $45,000. About 550 prisoners are employed in the Atlanta prison cotton mill. The product is not sold in open market, but is disposed of to government departments needing such supplies.

Idleness Pernicious.

Because of industrial methods and other measures to establish prison reform, the attorney general said recently that, altho there are now 645 more inmates at the three prisons named, the expenses of operating them will be about $70,000 below the amount appropriated by Congress.

Mr. Daugherty's opinion is that idleness is dangerous both to the idle and to society.

"Idleness is pernicious," he said, "pernicious both morally and physically to all men, especially to prisoners. If men in prison are to again fill places of usefulness in society it is imperative that constructive labor be furnished them during their confinement."

"No record of merely material accomplishment can give such satisfaction as comes from the re-establishment of a man as a useful member of society. The period of a man's incarceration for an offense against the state need not necessarily be destructive of the man's present or future worth to society nor of his self-respect or immediate earning capacity."—Louisville Herald.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTOR OIL RAILROAD FATALITIES

The number of persons fatally injured on the Illinois Central System in 1921 was the smallest in twenty-four years, according to a recent statement from President C. H. Markham of that road. The number of fatalities in 1920 was a reduction of 30.7 per cent as compared with 1911, although the Illinois Central System handled 113.4 per cent more freight and 43 per cent more passengers than in 1911.

In the road service of the Illinois Central System a passenger has not been fatally injured in more than four years. Only one passenger has been fatally injured in the entire history of the Chicago suburban service of the Illinois Central, which was established in 1856.

The number of fatalities on all railroads in 1920 was 33.1 per cent less than in 1911 and was the smallest in twenty-two years, although 1920 was a record year of heavy traffic, which required the operation of more trains.

Trespassing and automobile grade crossing accidents are the most prolific causes of railway fatalities. In 1920 2,166 trespassers and 1,273 occupants of automobiles, or nearly one-half of the total number, were fatally injured on the railroads. More persons are fatally injured by falls, automobiles and burns than on the railroad.

Railway men are constantly trained in the importance of safety, and the good showing is made possible by their increased efforts, the president of the Illinois Central System says.

How Is Your Complexion?

A woman should grow more beautiful as she grows older and she will with due regard to baths, diet and exercise, and by keeping her liver and bowels in good working order. If you are haggard and yellow, your eyes losing their lustre and whites becoming yellowish, your flesh flabby, it may be due to indigestion or to a sluggish liver. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders.

WARSHIP QUICKLY LANDS BIG CANNON

Big Field Piece Lowered On Platform Supported By Fast Motor Boats.

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, April 22.—Anchored in Guantanamo Bay, opposite the naval station, the U. S. S. battleship Florida successfully lowered from her decks and landed on the beach a 155-millimeter gun on a massive mount and tractors.

The big field piece, completely set up and in readiness for action when it reached land, was swung over the side to a platform built on two large motor boats, making a pontoon that would, with its own power, carry the gun to shore. This was followed by the landing of two seventy-five field pieces and tractor tracks for ammunition and the train of a landing party.

The action was done with great dispatch and without a hitch and all equipment landed without an accident. These guns and tractors are a part of the equipment of the advance base of the Marine Corps. The guns are now at the marines' post of the Guantanamo station, where they are manned by a detachment which has recently arrived from Quantico, Va. The men are to be drilled with the gun and especially with a view to its use for landing parties, as was demonstrated in the handling by the Florida.

This special practice of the marine is being directed by Lieut. Col. Richard M. Cutts, U. S. M. C., and will be a part of the training schedule of the Atlantic fleet, which is here with its commander-in-chief, Admiral Hilary P. Jones, U. S. N., on the flagship Columbia.

BREAKDOWN SEEN IN IMMIGRATION BARRIER

Washington, April 22.—A serious breakdown in the government's barriers against the smuggling of immigrants into this country is threatening, according to Senator Lodge, Republican leader of the Senate.

Lodge warned that between 400 and 700 members of the Federal Immigration Service would be suspended between now and July 1 due to lack of funds to pay their salaries. This lay-off of trained sleuths, who have spent years in ferreting down immigrant smugglers, will be due to the refusal of Congress to pass a deficiency appropriation for the service, Lodge said.

"I think the crippling of the immigration service thru failure to pass a deficiency appropriation is a very serious matter," Lodge said. "It will undoubtedly lead to a great deal of smuggling."

"It will mean the furloughing of from 400 to 700 men, because there will be no money to pay their salaries until July 1, when the appropriations for the next fiscal year become available."

Lodge estimated that "10,000 illicit and unlawful immigrants" will be admitted before the immigration service can restore its barriers to normal conditions.

"It seems to me to be extravagance of the worst kind to break up a service which at the best is undermanned."

LOW BIRTH RATE ALARMS FRANCE

Government Expresses Fear Country May Be Forgotten.

Paris, April 22.—Figures published recently showed that the population of France is yearly diminishing in alarming proportions. An accompanying report suggested that the government take all measures necessary to put a stop to such a state of affairs lest "France join the ranks of so many other nations which one time were great, but which today exist only in memories."

Before any measures could even be considered French mothers and fathers came forward to prove how hard it is to have children when the high cost of living, high taxation and ridiculous regulations made by landlords refusing to allow children in flats they own still exist. Others point out that the government promises aid after the birth of the fifth child, but that when such help is due grouchy bachelor bureaucrats revel in "considering the case" for several months. Even then the aid given would not keep a youngster going three months. The following are typical examples of letters received by the authorities from mothers and fathers and express their views on reproduction and depopulation:

"You want French women to have more children," writes a mother, "but you laugh at those with large families. You want children, but what do you do to protect, save and safeguard them? Of what use are speeches, laws and medals? You can not create life with them. It is with air, bread and security that you can create pure and healthy children."

A young married couple writes: "We have no home. We can not find a flat. Do away with the house shortage. We live in one room, which does not belong to us. How can we have children?"

A father wants to know why the presence of two or three children is an excuse for a landlord to refuse to rent his flat?

"Why shouldn't a good citizen who creates soldiers for his country's army and daughters to perpetuate the race have preference over a single person? I have five sons, and I have to live in a four-room flat. My neighbor, a bachelor, has one of six rooms. I fought in the war; he did not. If a war breaks out in the next few years my sons will have to fight and my bachelor neighbor will remain at home."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

The great benefit derived from the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been gratefully acknowledged by many. Mrs. Benjamin F. Blakeney, Decatur, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is by far the best medicine for colds and coughs we have ever used in our family. I gave it to my children when small for croup and have taken it myself."

NOTE AND COMMENT

A Sunday bill was introduced into the New York State Legislature on January 24, to repeal the Sunday motion-picture law. The measure was drafted by the Lord's Day Alliance of New York State. Under its provisions, owners of property in which pictures are exhibited on Sunday, as well as the management of the theater, would be held responsible for the violation of the law. Mr. Davey, the counsel for the Lord's Day Alliance, announced that they would also favor legislation which would prohibit the playing of football and basketball on Sundays.

Another bill has been introduced into the New York State Legislature, known as the Dickstein Sunday Business Bill, granting exemption to those who observe another day than Sunday as holy time. The Lord's Day Alliance is bitterly opposing the passage of this measure, since it believes, as Dr. H. L. Bowlby (its general secretary) says, that all should be compelled to observe Sunday and that the Jew should be required "to attend his synagogue on the same day we attend our churches." Mr. Bowlby claims that such a course would not be an infringement of the rights of religious liberty, but simply the enforcement of the law. Upon the force of this identical logic, the Jews crucified Christ, and Nero burned the Christians at the stake. "We have a law," said they, "whereby these people ought to die, if they refuse to yield to our authority." All the persecutor wants, is a drastic law to sustain his bloody tenets.

Lord's Day Alliance Loses Case.

The Lord's Day Alliance of Maryland lost its late case against the manager, Jack Dunn, of the baseball club known as the Baltimore International, for playing baseball on Sundays. The case was lost before the lower court, and upon appeal, the Lord's Day Alliance then carried it to the State court of appeals; and on January 25, the court handed down its decision favoring the proponents of Sunday baseball. It sustained the lower court which had refused to issue a mandamus compelling Police Commissioner Gaither, of Baltimore, to enforce Sunday observance laws which prohibit professional baseball on Sundays. In Maryland the jury is the interpreter of the law as well as of the facts in the case, and in that State no jury has yet been found that has sustained the Sunday blue laws against amusements. The Lord's Day Alliance has met its Waterloo in Maryland. What its next move will be remains to be seen.

According to the Kansas City Jewish Chronicle of January 6, Poland has granted religious freedom to the Jews, and no longer requires them to observe Sunday.

The Chronicle printed the following dispatch from Warsaw:

"The first measure of partial relief in the compulsory Sunday-closing law, has been obtained for Jewish shopkeepers and workers, following protracted negotiations on the part of the Jewish communal workers, deputies and representatives of the government. The new arrangement enables Jewish bakers who close on the Sabbath to keep their place of business open on Sundays and Christian holidays. Heretofore, they were compelled to be idle two days of each week, in addition to Jewish and Christian holidays. Permission is now sought for Jewish laborers who observe the Sabbath, to work on Sunday and non-Jewish holidays.

"Catholics who observe their specific holidays, are also permitted under this new arrangement to keep open on non-Catholic holidays."—Liberty.

USELESS COAXING

Where taxicabs dodged in and out, Where mad men pushed the women back, Where high walls shut the sunlight out, He sighed, alas, and said "Alack!"

"Give me the open fields," he sang, The clear brook leaping gladly down, Far from the smudge and roar and clang And warfare of the Godless town!

"Give me the songs of wren and lark, The draught dipped from the limpid spring, Where no unyielding money shark Would grab my clothes and everything.

"Give me the joyful open space, The fragrance in each breeze that blows, Exemption from the killing pace, The springtime cawing of the crows.

"Give me the charm of country lanes, Where clover lures the honey bee, Instead of toil for paltry gains Where no one has a nod for me.

"Give me the scent of fresh-plowed earth, The glad bleat of the watchful dam, Where daily I may prove my worth, And men will notice who I am."

They called him where the fields were wide And streams were clear and hands were few; "Come on," they begged, "and we'll provide A steady job out here for you."

He who had found that city life Was irksome sadly shook his head; "I can not go, because my wife Would die of loneliness," he said.

"My plan she answers with reproof, Preferring always, I regret, To hang her washing on the roof Above our rooms and kitchenette." —S. S. KISER, in Louisville Herald.

MRS. MACKEY IS DELIGHTED WITH RESULTS

Ten Years of Suffering From Stomach Trouble Ended In Thirty Days, Declares Massillon Woman. Gives Tanlac Full Credit.

"I can say for Tanlac it relieved me in just a month's time of troubles that made my life miserable for ten years," said Mrs. Fannie Mackey, 202 Chestnut St., Massillon, Ohio.

"During all these years I had no appetite and everything I ate hurt me. Often after eating I had a burning sensation like fire in my stomach and was sometimes deathly sick. My liver was sluggish, I was always needing laxatives and I felt miserable all the time. It seems hard to believe that any medicine could do as much as Tanlac has done for me.

"I have just finished my third bottle now and my stomach trouble is all gone and I am able to eat things I hadn't dared touch for years. I sleep better and feel better than I ever expected to again and I am just delighted with the results I have obtained from Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Hartford by Dr. L. B. Bean and by all leading druggists everywhere.

ONE NIGHT'S DANCING EQUALS 20-MILE WALK

Philadelphia, April 22.—Wot on, the famous long-distance "hiker," has nothing on the modern flapper, according to Dr. Karl Heinstadt, noted Swiss physician, who is stopping here.

"The average fox-trotter covers a mile and a quarter every twenty minutes," Dr. Heinstadt says. "The waltz, being much slower, covers only half that. The young woman who dances from 10 p. m. to 5 a. m., with half an hour for midnight lunch, depends energy equivalent to that required for a walk of thirty miles."

Farmers and others who live at a distance from a drug store should keep in the house a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. It may be needed at any time for cuts, wounds, sores, sprains or rheumatism. It is a powerful healing and penetrating remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ohio County Drug Company.

DIVER WINS BOUT WITH DEVILFISH

Tacoma, Wash., April 22.—Battling for his life fifty feet beneath the surface of Puget Sound, Walter McCray, a diver, known in mariners' circles from Alaska to California, came out victorious here yesterday over a giant devilfish.

The monster wound its tentacles so tightly about McCray that the diver was unable to reach the knife he carries for protection. When one tentacle threatened to cut off the air supply, McCray, thru the submarine telephone, called for a short steel working bar. With this weapon he was able to pierce the body of the devilfish and at last, with man and monster still struggling desperately, McCray was drawn to the surface by his assistant and other men called to help.

While Richard Burnett, a dock watchman, stood by with drawn pistols unable to shoot because the diver and devilfish were so completely tangled, others attacked with what weapons there were at hand and finally the devilfish released its hold and disappeared beneath the water.

The devilfish was one of the largest ever seen in these waters and was the first, McCray said that ever attacked him.

McCray, who suffered chiefly from exhaustion, was prepared to resume diving today.

FRENCH REDS' PARADE IS SET FOR MAY DAY

Paris, April 22.—French revolutionists and communists will again manifest on May 1—French Labor Day—this year. Again they have decided to parade the streets of Paris waving red flags and singing revolutionary songs. Their war cries this year will be complete disarmament and no change in the eight-hour day.

It is expected that the government will take the usual preventive measures and break up any attempt to parade down the main streets of the city. Already it has been decided that wire gratings surrounding trees will be taken up and that numerous troops will gather in and around the city. Revolutionists in previous years used the gratings to mob the police. But only slight disturbances are expected on account of the greatly reduced ranks of the communists in the last year.

ILLINOIS G. O. P. BURY'S HATCHET

Praise Harding, Adopt Platform and Cheer Each Other.

Springfield, Ill., April 21.—Illinois Republicans today buried the party hatchet long enough to get together in a harmony convention—which lasted fifty-two minutes.

They cheered each other impartially, seated each contesting delegates, adopted a platform that avoids any factional issues and staged a friendly demonstration or two.

The Small-Thompson forces seated Mayor William Hale Thompson's contesting delegation from Chicago, with half a vote per man; avoided any censure of Governor Small, and any praise of his opponents. They also obtained the temporary chairmanship and made their fair half of the motions planned by the steering committee.

The McCormick-Brundage-Crowe forces seated their Chicago delegation likewise with a half vote per man; avoided any laudation of Governor Small's administration; conferred the permanent chairmanship on United States Senator William B. McKinley, and made the other half of the steering committee's motion.

Praise Administration.
The platform adopted praised President Harding's administration for providing agricultural credits; controlling grain exchanges and the packing industry; relieving shippers from oppressive railroad rates; "getting back to peace-time expenditures for government purposes; views with confidence the signs manifest of better agricultural prices, diminution of unemployment, better business and all the happy results of a wise program of domestic legislation, the natural result of the people's confidence in a Republican administration."

Bonus Plan Indorsed.
The platform also indorsed the bonus plan, now before Congress; congratulated the country on being out of the League of Nations, and expressed "unalterable opposition" to participation on any commissions created under the covenant of the league or the Versailles treaty. The platform concludes with a resolution prepared by Senator McCormick and McKinley indorsing the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway and urging the President to enter negotiations with Canada immediately with a view of starting this work. When Governor Small and Mayor Thompson appeared before the convention they were given an enthusiastic demonstration as that accorded to Senators McCormick and McKinley and Attorney General Brundage.

COCKROACHES SEND RADIO MESSAGES

Harrisburg, Pa., April 21.—The troublesome cockroach is a radio "fan" and communicates by wireless with his brothers and sisters, Howard Zimmerman, of Harrisburg, sergeant major of the 55th Infantry Brigade Headquarters Company, Pennsylvania National Guard, believes and seeks to prove thru experiments, the results of which were made public here today.

The experiments, Sergeant Zimmerman said, have been under way here for a year, and are the results of investigations begun in a bug-infested barracks in Luxemburg, under the direction of Captain Armstrong, of the 5th Division Signal Corps, with which Zimmerman was serving shortly before the armistice. "At that time we were having night school and were working on the shortest possible wave length, getting as low as one-fourth of a meter," the sergeant explained. Radio sets were located three feet apart on a glass topped table. "One night everything was working perfectly when suddenly our tubes began to act queerly. By the flickering light of the candle we finally located 'Mr. Cockroach' sitting in the space between the receiving and transmitting apparatus. We removed him and to our surprise the apparatus became normal. This led us to believe he was capable of making electric power."

VOLUNTARY SUNDAY CLOSING

Here is a movement of Sunday closing which we can favor and which we commend. The Scholtz Mutual Drug Company, of Los Angeles (Calif.) of its own volition decided to close all its drug stores on Sunday. There is all the difference in the world between a voluntary act and a compulsory law relative to religious observances. This is the point on which we differ with those religionists who favor compulsory Sabbath or Sunday observance. We believe strictly in the observance of the Sabbath and all other religious obligations that are binding upon the conscience of the Christian we do; not believe that any purely religious act which one owes exclusively to God is a subject for civil law enforcement, but that it should remain altogether a voluntary service to God. —Liberty.

STATE TROOPS TO LEAVE NEWPORT

Frankfort, Ky., April 21.—Kentucky National Guard troops which have been on strike duty in Newport for several months probably will be withdrawn within the next few days, possibly on Monday of next week, it was learned here today. Governor Morrow and Adj. Gen. Jackson Morris both were out of the city, however, and no official would comment on the possible time of withdrawal. Reports have been current for several weeks that the troops would be withdrawn soon and within the past week there has been a well defined report current in Newport that the troops would be withdrawn tomorrow. Governor Morrow, however, has consistently refused to discuss the question.

Maj. James K. Dillon, of London, an officer with the forces at Newport, and Will Andrews, of the Andrews Steel Company, at which a strike is in progress, came here early this week and conferred with officials on the situation, it was learned. Mr. Andrews, it was said, today urged that the troops be kept at Newport until next week at least.

COLLEGE GIRLS PREFER JOBS TO JAZZ IDLENESS

Baltimore, April 22.—Reactionaries who picture the "modern girl" as chiefly bent on frivolities will find little support for their theories at Goucher College, for, according to President William W. Guth, no less than 165 girls from the two upper classes are now spending their coveted spring recess at hard work. "The average college girl," he said recently, "prefers a job to jazz and would rather find a place of real usefulness in the community than pedestal of ornamental idleness."

The 165 Goucher girls at work are serving as apprentices with industrial and professional organizations in their home towns, with a view to choosing their ultimate vocations more intelligently after graduation.

BANKS URGED TO CURB GAMESTERS

Crissinger Warns Against Speculation As National Prosperity Returns.

Gainesville, Fla., April 22.—A warning against a growing tendency toward speculation throughout the country as business conditions improve, was sounded here today by Controller of the Currency D. R. Crissinger in an address before the Florida Bankers Association.

He urged the bankers to advise their clients toward sound investments and to use their influence "to prevent fly-by-night schemes."

Recent reductions in interest rates, Mr. Crissinger declared, have been too generally regarded by the speculative public as a sign of easy profits in sight when at the present time it was of supreme importance that money and credit would be available to sustain renewed business activity.

Warns of Overconfidence.

"The present," he said, "is a most appropriate time for bankers to admonish their clients against overconfidence in speculative investments. The world needs a restoration of opportunity to produce and consume things needed for human progress and bankers should keep in mind that the first call for liquid capital must be made in behalf of the farmer, the manufacturer, the exporter and, in general, the industrial and commercial community. It is equally important that banks be kept from overextending themselves by too liberal accommodations to speculative clients."

Mr. Crissinger declared that he was glad to bring to the South a real message of assurance that the country was indeed around the curve and moving steadily and surely forward on the road to more prosperous conditions.

Business Outlook Brighter.

"The business outlook for the whole country," he continued, "is brighter and more encouraging than it has been for the last two years. We are well rid of business and industrial freight, and in a position to go forward on sound and substantial lines. We are ready to start, to be off, to be doing."

"Business, industry, agriculture and commerce need only the awakening of American pluck, courage and initiative to insure the re-establishment of prosperity."

"The banks which come under my supervision, in the main, are in condition and prepared to face every productive enterprise, but should have nothing for speculative adventure. There has been wonderful improvement in banking and financial circles; money is easy and cheap, and as in the past the banks again will be the bulwark of prosperity and the sheet-anchor of national progress."

LIGHTNING BUGS SUPPLIED LIGHT FROM RADIO, BELIEF

Peoria, Ill., April 21.—The mystery of what makes the lightning bug light has been solved and the answer is radio, according to Hamilton Bailey, wireless operator on the S. S. S. Blackhawk, flagship of the North Sea mine sweeping fleet during the World War.

Lightning bugs, Bailey says, are equipped with miniature audion bulbs and possess a low radio frequency and a short wave length. Radio waves generated by parent lightning bugs equipped with broad-casting apparatus cause the lightning-like flashes, he asserts.

Each bug is equipped with its own antennae—the long feelers or whiskers serving as the aerial, according to Bailey. The theory is the subject of experiments by the Peoria Radio Club, according to Ernest Stidham, president of the club and investigations will likewise be made at Bradley College here.

COURT CITES HEAD OF STATE HOSPITAL

Frankfort, Ky., April 21.—Dr. F. G. Larue, superintendent of the Eastern State Hospital at Lexington, today was cited by Judge Robert L. Stout for contempt of court in connection with the case of Alexander Julian, who recently was declared insane. Julian was taken to the hospital yesterday by an attendant from that place.

The citation is made returnable Monday, April 24.

The action against Dr. Larue was brought as a result of an affidavit by Ambrose McDonald, a deputy, stating an alleged conversation with Dr. Larue in regard to the case. It is alleged that Dr. Larue, when notified that Julian had been held insane, stated that he would send his own doctors here to examine the man and determine whether or not he is insane.

The conversation was reported to Judge Stout and the citation issued. After the conversation, however, Dr. Larue sent an attendant here and Julian was taken to the hospital yesterday.

May thirtieth, memorial day, the day set apart and observed in almost every nook and corner of the United States for commemorating the memory and decorating the graves of those fallen during that bloody period of 61-65, ought to teach us all a lesson unforgettable between the dates as the years go by. Rather we should say that the actions and attitude of the grand old men now living and of those who took a part in the events that tore and bled and divided this Country even to households, and have since responded to the last bugle call, should give to us the lesson. The men who wore the blue and those who were garbed in the gray have set an example of getting together, pulling for the same common ends, making the Nation worth while and residing together in perfect unity, unsurpassed in all history. If we, the sons and daughters of sires who faught each other through four long, bloody years, not infrequently one in the gore of his brother, for principles deemed sacred and unquestion-ably right, were to hold out the hand of charity, display the same traits of brotherly love, often as it seems to us, more tender and staunch than is frequently displayed by blood brothers, what might we not do? It has been our observation that the blue and the gray have even grown clanish. What if Churches, the different denominations, the various Isms, all of whom profess to be following the Lowly Nazarene (and they are) should get together, work and move forward in solid mass with the same exhibition of brotherly love and admiration as is displayed by the fast fading veterans of the war of the States? The answer can be but one, that is, that the Country, through Christian endeavor, would be captured for righteousness and Christian Religion and the Devil whipped to a frazzle in less than no time, so to speak. Too much, in fact more hold-alloofness has recently been displayed in this section than ever before noted, at least in our day. One person, in numerous instances, with a pail of ice water can dampen, chill and maybe drown, more individuals who would like to be traveling the trail that leads out of the bog, and fen and foul morass than a half dozen other parties can rescue in twice the length of time. A load sufficient in weight to tax the capacity of all the workers cannot be carried to the goal when a portion of the laborers are not only bearing down but kicking obstacles in the path of those willing to carry. If the bucket brigade, the cold-water-heavers, could only hear the plea of the Master to cast their rusty pails in the junk heap and get under the load, lend a hand in carrying on, God only knows what might be accomplished in the community to which every Christ loving citizen owes first and faithful allegiance. We are in nowise disposited to be at all personal, or to be so considered, as if that should be the case we might lose some of our best friends. Then too, the criticism, if taken as such, might be hurled back our way, but by way of advance acknowledgement we plead guilty of having too large a share in just those things, but the beam in our own eye does not wholly prevent our seeing the mote in the optic of the other fellow. This we do not say for apology, but by way of confession.

that post office. The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily wagon route of 24 miles is $1,800 per annum, with an additional $30 per mile per annum for each mile or major

WESTERN BLOOMER GIRLS WILL PLAY BEAVER DAM

Mr. C. E. Baker of the Western Bloomer Girls' Base Ball Club has been in Beaver Dam making arrangements for the first appearance of the Western Bloomer Girls' Base Ball Club in Beaver Dam, which will be on Friday May 5th, with the local Base Ball Club.

General Agent Baker states that in introducing this club of high-class lady players to the public in general he wishes it to be understood that they do not travel with the intention of drawing crowds, just through the novelty of ladies playing ball, but really draw the people through their ability to play a wonderfully interesting, exciting and scientific game of ball, and when taken in consideration that the Western Bloomer Girls are composed of young ladies, the games they play are all the more remarkable. Kate Becker is the star lady pitcher of the world, and is supported by a team composed of the very best players that money can hire, who in themselves are each a star player, making the strongest organization of its kind ever organized. There have been other lady base ball clubs but they have come and they have gone.
Their life upon the green diamond was one of short duration. They came and tried to out-rival all other competitors, but like the present slang phrase, they had to "go away back and sit down," leaving the original Western Bloomer Girls to stand season after season as the only real champion ladies' base ball club of the world.

STRAY STREAKS

If every man would try as hard to be agreeable to men in general and his own wife in particular as he does to some other fellow's wife, this old world would be a better place in which to live.

The trouble with these dainty and delicious repasts is that they send you straight to the cupboard on your arrival home.

If we could get our wife to observe kindness-to-animal week about fifty-two times each year we would be a heap happier.

Endeavor to find out the truth of a rumor before giving it credence by added publicity. When run to earth it may prove untrue. If otherwise, on second or third thought, you will more than likely decide its best to keep your mouth closed. Too many people help in circulating a shady rumor in magnified form only to find out later that there is nothing to it.

everywhere without trouble, but he had forgotten to ask about his mule-

PROSPERITY AND HIGH PRICES NOT RELATED

Washington, April 27 (Capital News Service).—The Associated Advertising Clubs of the World is an international organization representing the best and most progressive element in modern business. Its president, Mr. Charles Henry MacIntosh, says that the relation of prosperity and high prices is fictitious, and that it is perfectly possible for the country as a whole to be extremely prosperous in an era of low prices.

"If high prices meant prosperity,
Russia would be the most prosperous country in the world today," said Mr.
MacIntosh. "Yet in Russia, where it costs two thousand rubles to mail a letter first class, men starve who have money but no food to buy with it."

Economists in the government service point out that the height or lowness of a price cannot be measured in terms of money, unless the worth of the monetary unit is also made a part of the measurement.
Thus, a German mark, once worth about twenty cents, is now worth a fraction of a cent. An object once to be bought for one mark now costs two hundred marks, yet the value of the object and its relative price is the same. Only when price increases faster than the value of the purchasing unit sinks can absolute price be said to rise. Disparity in price of goods and price of money is frequently caused by too rapid rise or fall of commodity prices, which is the fundamental underlying Mr. MacIntosh's warning that "those who expect the return of war time prices or expect the lower limit of the price decline within a few months are misguided optimists and speak certainly without intelligent knowledge of the facts of history."

WITH REFERENCE TO THE DOG LAW

Frankfort, Ky., April 12, 1922.
Mr. G. A. Ralph, Sheriff
Ohio County,
Hartford, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:—As sheriff of your county I am sending you a copy of the Dog Law and wish to call your especial attention to Sections 17, 18, 19 and 20 and 32 thereof. As the enforcement of this law is in the hands of the local officers in each county, we are writing to ask that you give this matter your close and prompt attention and see that all owners take out licenses for their dogs. Owners not licensing their dogs should be brought into court and show cause why they have not so licensed them.

Sections 18 and 19 give specific instructions to the sheriff stipulating that it is their duty to go upon the premises to ascertain if any dogs are owned or harbored by parties failing to take out licenses on same.
We would like to hear from you and know what progress has been made in this matter.

Very truly yours,
W. C. HANNA,
Commissioner of Agriculture.
It will be seen from the above that the state officers will require the county officers to enforce the dog law. The people must therefore get their dog tags if they have not done so.

mission from his commanding officer

IS CHAMPION OF LIBERTY OF WOMEN

ACROSS THE SANDS

Across the hot and burning sands
Some oasis forever stands,
And twice as green and twice as fair
Because the burning sands are there;
Yes, twice as velvety the moss
Because of sands we had to cross.

And, tho the sands we need to pass,
We know beyond them is the grass;
And, though the burning road we tread,
We know the waters are ahead;
We have, whatever journey this,
Assurance of the oasis.

It is the long and weary mile
That makes the oasis worth while,
It is the palm, the waiting well,
That makes the desert bearable—
Life's daily journey seems to teach
We have an equal need of each.

' pity more than envy him
Who never looked beyond the rim
Of yellow sand to seek the palm,
The cooling waters and the calm—
Who always found a level road
And never knew a loss or load.

To know the best I think that first
A man has need to know the worst;
And yet a man, the worst to bear,
Must have some promise over there,
Must have assurance not in vain
He treads the sands and bears the pain.

And so I pity him as well
In whom no visions ever dwell,
Who has no faith that time shall bring
The palm, the grasses and the spring,
The pilgrim is the happiest
Who has both toil and hope of rest.

God give us both: the work, the dream,
The journey, though it burn the feet,
The sandy waste, the running stream,
That makes the oasis so sweet;
God give us both the peace, the strife,
The great entirety of Life.

Todd county farmers living in the Trenton community will give special attention to cooperative marketing, soil improvement, seed selection, increased acreages of legumes, elirization of scrub sires, a community junior agricultural club show and poultry improvement during the coming year, according to a program of work which they have arranged with the help of County Agent I. C. Graddy.

A number of Webster county farmers are planning to use acid phosphate on their tobacco fields this year broadcasting it at the rate of from three to four hundred pounds an acre, County Agent L. F. Cutler says. This fertilizer has given good results in increasing crop yields when properly used.

Daviess Hens Leading Demonstration Flocks.

Lexington, Ky., April 24.—Twenty-eight Barred Plymouth Rock hens owned by W. C. Kirk, Philpot, Daviess county, that produced an average of 24 eggs each during the month, took the lead in March egg production among the 47 Kentucky flocks that are being conducted as demonstrations by their owners who are cooperating with the College of Agriculture in showing the value of recommended poultry practices, it has been announced. This flock also is the leading one for the year, the hens having average 72.2 eggs each from Nov. 1, 1921, until April 1.

Owners of the remaining high producing flocks for the month follow: O. D. Meader, Franklin, Simpson county, W. P. Ellis, Crestwood, Oldham county; Mrs. Paul O'Connell, McQuady, Breckinridge county; J. T. Wilson, Corydon, Henderson county; S. J. Howard, Henderson, Henderson county; William Coomer, Kirk, Breckinridge county; A. J. Culver, Hopkinsville, Christian county; Joe E. Pitt, Fairfield, Nelson county; Sue Ellen Quick, Livia, McLean county.

Fayette Hens Take Lead Among Winter Egg Layers.

Lexington, Ky., April 14.—By producing an average of 27.5 eggs each during March, 44 Rhode Island Reds owned by H. C. Cobb, Fayette county, took the lead among the 950 poultry flocks entered in the winter egg laying project being conducted by the College of Agriculture, according to an announcement. This flock also was the leading one in the group composed of those having less than 50 hens.

The second and third flocks in this group were owned by Mrs. Grant Lewis, Morgan county, and Mrs. Homer Glover, McLean county.

The leading flocks in the group composed of those having from 50 to 199 hens were owned by Mrs. J. W. White, Christian county; Mrs. L. H. Davis, Fayette county and J. H. Mahan, Webster county.

Owners of the high producing flocks in the group composed of those having more than 200 hens were H. N. Sanford, Ballard county; Ben Carola Single Comb White Leghorn Miller, Breckinridge county, and the Farms, Fayette county.

Many Households Turn To Talk of Poultry Beds.

Lexington, Ky., April 22.—The time of the year has arrived when talk of flower bed preparation develops to take a prominent place among other important springtime discussions in the Kentucky household, gardeners say. The period of bloom, the color, and the height of various flowers loom up as important questions to demand attention before the early season baseball scores are read while much discussion has settled the point that the tallest growing flowers should be planted at the rear or in the center of the bed and the smaller growing ones nearer the edges, it is said.

Asters, cosmos, heliotrope, marigolds, nasturtiums, phlox, verbena, salvia, caladium, canna, dahlias, gladiolus, pink, ageratum, sweet alyssum and dwarf zinnia make up the group of flowers most commonly grown in the State, according to N. R. Elliott, of the College of Agriculture extension division.

The height to which they grow the color of their blossoms and the flowering period of some of the popular flowers follow:

Knox county farm boys and girls are to have a hand in replacing the scrub and mongrel hens of that district with purebreds, County Agent Earl Mayhew says. FRENCH SOLDIERS KILLED

As French soldiers were searching for hidden arms in a cemetery in Upper-Silesia a spade struck the detonating mechanism of a mine which exploded killing 20 soldiers. A crater 30 feet in diameter and 12 feet deep was made. It was found that the mine had been planted under a store of arms.

SENT TO AUSTRIA.

The heart of the former emperor of Austria-Hungary was sent to Vienna in a glass jar inclosed in a silver casket. The body was placed in a church at Funchal and the whole city suspended business and lined the streets through which the funeral procession passed. The king of Spain sent a floral wreath. The disposition of former Empress Zita has already troubled international politics. The little entente—Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and Rumania—served notice on Hungary that they would oppose her return to that country. Zita announced that she would prefer to live in Switzerland and the Swiss government was asked to consent on the assurance that she would enter into no intrigues.

CHILDREN, 7 AND 13, HELD ON COUNTERFEIT CHARGE

Detroit, April 22.—Two of the youngest respondents ever brought into court here on a Federal charge appeared before United States Commissioner J. Stanley Hurd, today, from arraignment on a charge of passing counterfeit money.

The youngsters, Freda Rossi, 7 years old, and her brother, Sigmund Rossi, 13, were ordered held for the grand jury.

Their parents, Angelo and Lillian Rossi, also were arraigned and held on the same charge.

WOMAN WINS CASE IN SUPREME COURT

Starting out as a stenographer, Miss Florence King, born in Iowa, has spent 25 years in the federal courts where she practices patent law. Aided by her expert knowledge of engineering, she recently pleaded a case involving patents before the U. S. supreme court and won it. She is the first woman to accomplish this feat, and in recognition the American Association of Engineers has made her a member. Miss King says: "Women must take an active part in politics, not because they are women but because of the god they can do."

TO BE SEVERE ON REBELS

A recent decree issued by President Obregon shows that he is tired of so many revolutions and that they are to be stopped if the government can stop them. The decree addressed to the attorney-general says that henceforth those engaged in insurrections shall be dealt with according to law and that stern justice will be meted out. The president said that the leaders of many small groups are giving a bad impression abroad. It was declared that there was nothing at the time to indicate a serious condition anywhere, but the president had just received a protest from a number of prominent Catholics of Guadalajara against "savage propaganda" there by radicals.

GERMANY MUST PAY IS FRANCE'S EDICT

Armies Will Not Be Cut Says Premier In Call For Country To
"Do Its Duty."

Bar-Le-Due, April 24.—Premier Poincaré announced in a speech here today that if the French delegation at Genoa could not go ahead with its work under the agreed conditions, France would regret fully to have to cease participation in the conference.

France will, if necessary, undertake alone to see that the treaty of Versailles is executed if the Germans default in their reparations payments, Premier Poincaré intimated.

May 31, when the Germans must either accept the conditions laid down by the reparations commission or default in their payment, is an important date for France, said the Premier. "It is France's duty," he added, "to assume the duty of maintaining the integrity of the treaty."

"All we have ever asked and all we ask today is the execution of the treaty," said M. Poincaré, "and that we must have and shall have. The peace of Europe depends on it. Our future and our national prosperity depend on it."

"It is not by precipitate action or by decisions without reflection that we will obtain it. It is by perseverance and methodical action. But it must be done."

The Premier declared he ardently hoped for the co-operation of the Allies in case Germany defaulted "but, according to the terms of the treaty," he added, "each may in case of need take, respectively, such measures as you judge appropriate and just and suffer it that our unfortunate country succumb under the burden of reparations alongside of a Germany that does not consent to make the necessary effort to discharge her debts."

"We shall defend, in full independence, the French cause, and we shall not abandon any arms the treaty gives us."

France to Join Peace Pact If Given Guaranty.

Genoa, April 24.—The French delegation announced today it was willing to subscribe to the proposed pact under which the various nations would agree to abstain from aggression, provided it was backed by proper guarantees, considered especially necessary in view of the Russo-German treaty.

In its announcement of qualified willingness to become a party to this pact, proposed by Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain, the French delegation said:

"It must be made clear that Germany and Russia have no aggressive intentions before the rest of Europe can agree to any such pact."

"If it involves the neutralization of frontier zones, it may be useful. If it involves later some form of reduction of armies, it may be beneficial."

"France is ready to reduce if others do so, because this would decrease expenditures, but it must affect everybody and be without a loophole for violation."

In this connection it was pointed out this afternoon that the British communiques on the subject have indicated that Mr. Lloyd George did not contemplate the provision of guarantees.

Once more today the gyrating Genoa conference which has been alternating between fears and hopes and punctuated by political crisis which threatened to destroy it altogether, set itself grimly to the task of readjusting the economic life of Europe.

The announcement by the German delegates that they would not reply to the Allies' second note, because they did not wish to endanger the success of the conference, was received everywhere with frankly uttered words of relief, for almost everybody was beginning to despair secretly that the conference would end in economic achievement.

DEPRESSION DAYS LEAVING INDIANA

Indianapolis, April 22.—Days of business depression in Indiana are fast passing. This is indicated by cheerful predictions of a business revival from leaders in retail, wholesale and industrial lines. Many factories in Indianapolis are running at or near full capacity, and others, operating at 50 to 60 per cent of normal, report gradually-increasing business.

Retail and wholesale business continues on an even keel, with a number of large retail establishments reporting a slight increase over last year in cash receipts. Practically all retail dealers report a larger turnover in volume of goods handled than during the first two months of 1921.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. If your child has a cold when diphtheria is prevalent you should take him out of school and keep him off the street until fully recovered, as there is a hundred times more danger of his taking diphtheria when he has a cold. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted.

URGES WHIPPING POST TO KEEP PUBLIC ORDER

Savannah, Ga., April 22.—Establishment of a whipping post for the punishment of criminal offenders was advocated here by Judge E. T. Surley, of Warrenton, temporarily presiding in the Chatham County Superior Court.

The remarks of the Judge came during the course of a lecture he was delivering to a negro woman who had entered a plea of guilty. He said it is a great problem with the judges to determine what to do with some prisoners, especially women. He expressed his belief that 250 lashes with a buggy trace in installments of fifty would be beneficial to the prisoner and could be well applied in many other cases.

POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK IS OBSERVED

May 1 Sees Inaugurated First General Campaign of Kind in Service.

Without the Postal Service, business would languish in a day, and be at a standstill in a week. Public opinion would die of dry rot. Sectional hatred or prejudice only would flourish, and narrow-mindedness thrive.

It is the biggest distinctive business in the world and it comes nearer to the innermost interests of a greater number of men and women than any other institution on earth. No private business, however widespread, touches so many lives so often or sharply; no church reaches into so many souls, flutters so many pulses, has so many human beings dependent on its ministrations.

"Postal Improvement Week" has been set for May 1, by the Postmaster General. This is the first general campaign of its kind in the Postal Service for several decades. Business men and their organizations, large users of the mail, newspapers, motion pictures, advertisers, and the entire organization of 326,000 postal workers are to be enlisted in this country-wide campaign of interest in postal improvements. Your help is vital. Address your letters plainly with pen or typewriter. Give street address. Spell out name of State, don't abbreviate. Put your return address in the upper left hand corner of envelope (not on the back) and always look at your letter before dropping in the mail to see if it is properly addressed. This care in the use of the mails is for your benefit and speeds up the dispatch and delivery of mail matter.

If you have any complaints of poor service make them to your postmaster. He has instructions to investigate them and report to the department.

COURTESY

It sticks in human relations like postage stamps on letters. The POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT expects it to be used by its postmasters and employees in dealing with the public.

Help them in its use beginning with POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK, May 1-6, 1922.

THANK YOU

WOMAN RAILROAD OFFICER.

According to officials of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad the appointment of Mrs. E. J. Alden, of Chicago, as assistant secretary, is the only instance in this country of a woman holding a corporate office with a class one railway.

WILL HONOR HEROES

Commonwealth of Kentucky To Raise Funds For Memorial Building at Lexington

Commemoration of the sacrifice of Kentucky heroes in the World War will be the object of thousands of men, women and children of the State during the week of April 23-29 when they set out to raise $300,000 for a memorial building.

Names of the 3,056 who died will be placed on the bronze tablets in the building which will be used daily as a chapel and union by thousands of young people from every section of Kentucky attending the State University at Lexington. Records of Kentucky's part in the war, work of private citizens and of those in the military service, will be kept there in addition to war trophies.

An army of 150,000 school children will start out Monday, April 24, to raise one dollar each. The plan was endorsed by State Superintendent George Colvin and the Kentucky Educational Association at its annual meeting in Louisville. Superintendents, principals and teachers have been requested to assume direction of the school children's soliciting, acting as treasurer and either turning in the funds to the woman County Chairman or sending them to State Headquarters, 210 Fifth Street, Louisville.

Governor Morrow's proclamation follows:

"Those who have not forgotten the courage of the living and the glorious sacrifice of the dead; those who remember the soldiers of the great war who offered and gave themselves for us, will during the week of April 23-29 conduct throughout Kentucky a campaign to raise $300,000 for the purpose of erecting at the University of Kentucky a memorial chapel to perpetuate the lives and deeds and services of the American soldiers of the great war."

"The University of the Commonwealth is linked with the young manhood of Kentucky, and it is therefore fitting that on such a spot there should stand a memorial to the courageous youth of our State. No real monument or other memorial has been erected in Kentucky for this purpose thus far. I am, therefore, confident that this appeal will reach the heart and the purse of the patriotic citizens of the State. We honor ourselves when we honor those who died for us. We make certain that the spirit of yesterday will live throughout our tomorrows if we honor courage and nobility and sacrifice."

"I, therefore, set aside the week of April 23-29 as War Memorial Week, and call upon the men and women of Kentucky, the sons and daughters of the Republic, those who inherit and hold all for which the dead have died to lend their hearts and hands to the success of this campaign. The living offered and the dead gave their lives. We can give out of that which God has given to us that the memory of their deeds shall abide forever with us."

James C. Wilson, of Louisville, who was one of the most successful directors of Liberty Loan campaigns in the South, has been appointed State Chairman for this campaign.

The following poem, dedicating the Kentucky Memorial Building to the fallen heroes, winner of a state-wide contest, was written by Mrs. Eleanor Duncan Wood, of Maysville:

Dear Motherland, Kentucky, here we bring
The names of these thy sons who nobly died.
Who for Thy sake and Freedom's put aside
Young Love, and Lusty Life, and Call of Spring,
And strode down Death's dark ways adventuring.

We cannot bring them back; we cannot give
To their young eyes the joy of sunrise, nor To eager ears that call they harkened for
The cardinal among the hills of home.
They live
But in our hearts—and these are fugitive.

We shall go down to dust even as they.
So to Thy Heart, Kentucky, bring we now
These deathless names. A coronet for thy brow Best-loved, and Beautiful. And thou shalt pay Unending honor till Time's latest day.

And it shall be throughout the coming years
Young hearts shall proudly read these hero-names
And feel within their own the sacred flames,
"We'll live for what they died for—spite of fears."
So faith shall spring once more from blood and tears.

Keep safe these names; Thy sons who would not save Themselves at price of Liberty and Thee.
The "Old Kentucky Home" shall hallowed be Throughout the ages by the blood they gave;
Keep thou them safe, Thy Beautiful and Brave.

This poem will be on marble or bronze and placed in the Memorial Building.

ARMED MARCHING MINERS ON TRIAL

Charges Of Treason Against Union Leaders Selected To Be First Heard.

Charleston, W. Va., April 24.—Charges of treason, growing out of the Logan march last fall, were selected today by counsel for the State as the first upon which nine union leaders and members are to be tried in the Circuit Court here. The defense announced its intention to enter a demurrer to the treason charges and to file a motion to quash that indictment.

The opening of the trials of 120 officers and members of the United Mine Workers of America for the part they are alleged to have taken in the march against the non-union Logan coal field last summer, was delayed more than half an hour this morning while court attaches arranged to seat in the court the large gathering of defendants, counsel, witnesses and newspaper men.

The little Jefferson County District Court room was crowded to capacity when the defendants filed in and there was no room for persons not directly interested in the cases.

As soon as the arrangements had been made the charges of treason, murder, insurrection, conspiracy to commit murder and inciting, aiding and abetting murder were read.

Wives and other relatives of a number of the prominent defendants were seated in the front part of the room. They included Mrs. C. F. Keeney, wife of the president of District No. 17, United Mine Workers, and their son, Belmont; Mrs. Fred Mooney, wife of the district secretary, and Mrs. William Blizzard, wife of an organizer.

BONUS FINANCING PLANS CONSIDERED

Washington, April 22.—Various plans of financing the soldiers' bonus were discussed today at a conference of Senate Finance Committee Republicans, but Chairman McCumber said no definite decision had been reached. Before there is a conclusion, he said, representatives of the American Legion will be called in.

"I do not think that under any circumstances the bill will provide for any additional taxes," declared the chairman. "My belief is that we can get enough out of the foreign debt to take care of the bonus, but I don't want to depend entirely upon that."

The chairman said there had not been sufficient discussion to make any forecast as to whether the original cash bonus feature would be destroyed. He added, however, that it might be that provision would be made for paying cash to men entitled to not more than $100 in adjusted service pay. The House bill fixes this figure at $50.

It was indicated that the total cost to the Treasury probably would be the controlling factor in the committee decision as to this.

Senator McCumber expressed the opinion that when the committee had decided upon a bonus plan it would be presented to President Harding for his views. He said he did not think the executive had made up his mind to veto any bonus bill that did not specifically provide for means of financing it.

STATE BANKS WIN POINT IN SUIT WITH TAX BOARD

Frankfort, Ky., April 24.—State banks which are resisting efforts of the State Tax Commission to examine securities held by them as collateral in order to check up on returns made by their customers won a point today when Judge Robert L. Stout of the Franklin Circuit Court overruled a demurrer of the tax commission to the petition of the Capitol Trust Company of Frankfort for an injunction.

The case probably will be taken to the Court of Appeals on the demurrer. Six hundred and fifty State banks are behind the suit.

OLETS TO RUN FOR GOVERNOR OF OHIO

Youngstown, O., April 22.—Mayor George L. Oles, of this city, today announced his candidacy for governor of Ohio on an independent ticket.

Oles is not going to sparing of "red fire," he said today. He told of some of the features of his proposed campaign. Three weeks before election, he said, he will charter a private train for a state-wide tour "with a brass band and two freight car loads of red fire." Oles said he would make an automobile trip thru the state soon to size up conditions."

The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach... I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried... One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try."

WASHINGTON COMMENT

Can a government interfere with the law of supply and demand by legal enactment and "get away with it?"

The question is to be answered by experience. The United States government, acting as a city council for the Capital City, has extended the Ball Act, by which rents are regulated and the relations of tenant and landlord fixed by law for a further period of two years. Originally enacted as a war measure to prevent profiteering in Washington rental property during the period when enormous demand sent rents skyward, the act is now to be continued as an experiment in peace time regulation of commercial relations.

The individual renter is not as jubilant over the passage of the act as might be expected. Real estate men are frankly pessimistic over legislation which, they say, prevents investment in new rental properties. Those not actively interested either as renters or as landlords look with somewhat dubious eyes upon the law, the equity of which is continually called in question.

If the government can fix a "fair rental" for property and forbid one to ask and another to pay a higher amount, what can be urged against the government also fixing what is a "fair price" for coal, or a "fair wage" for a day's work? In what, fundamentally, does the difference consist between the price at which a dwelling may be rented, the price at which it may be sold, the price at which it may be built, the price at which it may be heated or lighted?

In time of war any legislation which furthers a nation's cause is justified. In time of peace it is at least a question whether legislation regulating any class of people or property or thing may not hold more potentiality for harm, in its undermining of United States principles, than of good in the temporary relief it affords. Washington's experiment will be eagerly, if anxiously, watched by the whole country.

"Be it enacted by the City Council of Some City that it shall hereafter be a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment, for any man, woman or child to have a fever."

If any city council did pass such an ordinance, the country would laugh. Forbidding symptoms and leaving the cause untouched would be considered foolish to the point of insanity.

Yet what shall be said of the action of a southern city council which has passed an ordinance barring "jazz" from the stage, public dances, and perhaps from all homes?

If reports can be believed, the authorities are now somewhat puzzled to know where ordinary music leaves off and jazz begins. Is jazz caused by cymbals and drums? Wagnerian music would come under the ban. Is it caused by piccolo notes, high and shrill? Church organs would be heavy offenders! Is it jazz when a saxophone moans? Never a band in the country that hasn't a saxophone choir among its instrumentation!

However, what is and what is not jazz may be determined by some ukase; the question is not so much what is decided to be jazz and therefore prohibited, but why prohibit the symptom and leave the cause untouched?

This particular instance will probably afford more amusement than anything else, and the chorus of fun poked at this city council by the daily press is already swelling. But considered as a symptom, such action may well cause serious thought; America is founded on law, order, and respect for government, on freedom of thought, religion and action so long as we interfere not with our neighbor's rights.

Passage of ridiculous (and not enforceable) law tends to make all law ridiculous. Make contempt for law universal, and the United States must become as Rome and Russia is.

LOCAL REVIVAL IS STILL IN PROGRESS

The series of meetings were still in progress at the local Christian Church last evening. The subject was "Parental Duty" and promised to be the most interesting delivered during the series. Several have been converted and much interest has been exhibited by those hearing Miss Cochran, whose sermons have been as full of logic and power as ever heard here. Of those who have heard the lady none have expressed opinions other than those of approval and admiration.

WITHOUT STREET ADDRESS YOUR MAIL IS DELAYED AT OFFICE OF DELIVERY

The Dead Letter Office has been in existence ever since Ben Franklin started our postal service. Even then people addressed mail to Mr. Ezekiel Smithers, "Atlantic Coast," and expected Ben to know just where Zeke lived.

Perhaps they had Zeke's address in letters up in the garret, maybe a chest full of 'em, but then it was easier to let Ben hunt Zeke. Today people are addressing letters to John Smith, New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Ill., thinking Uncle Sam can locate him, which is just as incomplete as was Zeke's address of yore. The Postoffice Department asks you to put the number and street in the address. It helps you.

Trinidad Col.

How do you expect the Postal Clerk to know whether you mean Trinidad, California, or Trinidad, Colorado?

ALWAYS SPELL OUT THE NAME OF THE STATE IN FULL IN THE ADDRESS.

"MORE BUSINESS IN GOVERNMENT"

This apt phrase was used in President Harding's first message to Congress and applies particularly in postal management where postmasters are being impressed with the fact that they are managers of local branches of the biggest business in the world.

HERE COMES A STRANGER!

Let's make our post office look neat, Mr. Postmaster. Straighten up the rural letter box, Mr. Farmer. Tidy up some, Mr. Rural Carrier. First impressions are lasting. Maybe Mr. Stranger, taking notice of these improvements, will come back, bringing you benefits. Start these with "POSTAL IMPROVEMENT WEEK" May 1-6.

HUMANIZING THE POSTAL SERVICE

"There is no unimportant person or part of our service. It is a total of human units and their co-operation is the key to its success. In its last analysis, postal duties are accommodations performed for our neighbors and friends and should be so regarded, rather than as a hired service performed for an absentee employer." Postmaster General Hubert Work.
